

Dr. Joy Godin

Joy Godin is a Professor of Management Information Systems at Georgia College & State University. Dr. Godin teaches both graduate and undergraduate students in the J. Whitney Bunting College of Business and Technology (CoBT) and the Georgia WebMBA program. She is the CoBT Coordinator for the WebMBA and the course lead for the WebMBA Management Information Systems course. Dr. Godin created the SAP Next-Gen lab and serves as the director of the lab. She also created and currently leads the first CoBT Faculty Learning Community. Her research stream is devoted to virtual teams and innovative teaching practices. While at Georgia College & State University, Joy has received awards including: Excellence in Online Teaching, Excellence in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, Excellence in University Service, and WebMBA Outstanding Faculty of the Year.